Welcome to AMHA SportsHeadz Provider

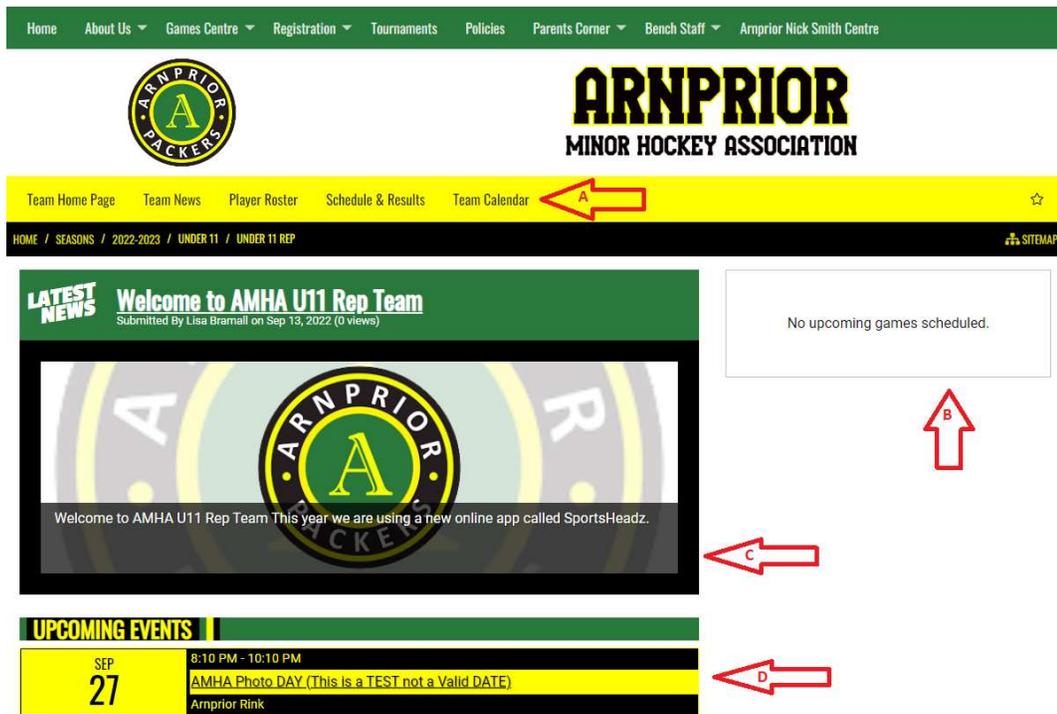

AMHA is Currently using SportsHeadz as our website provider.

Understanding AMHA Individual Team Web Page/Area

1. Enter the Division and Team that your child has made, you will be notified by Convener's or Coaches of the team they made.

2. Below is what you would see upon entering your own team website. Every team manager will manage this differently, however key areas that can be seen are the following:
- Arrow A: Each Team has its own Yellow Bar with Team News, Player Roster (BENCH STAFF will be the only items posted here, we will not be posting any Player names here), Schedule & Results and Team Calendar.
 - Arrow B: Once Games start to be scheduled, we will see in this area.
 - Arrow C: Team Managers can use this area to post any news about their team, however there will be limitations in this area. As any one can see this area and we should not post any photos or personal data without permission.
 - Arrow D: Team Managers can post any upcoming dates like Tournaments, Team Gatherings & Photo Days. But also, Practices will appear there.

AMHA SportsHeadz Mobile App for Parents/Players

2. Please follow these next steps in finding and adding the team your player is on.

- A. This is what you will initially see with no AMHA team visible yet, select “Find a Team”.

- B. Select your role for the team your about to join.

Note: “I’m just a fan of the team” you only see Upcoming EVENTS section. All other areas are not visible to you upon entry.

D. Select the team you would like to join.

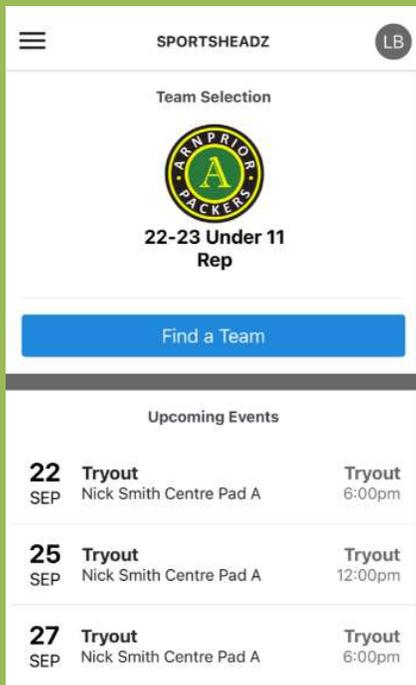

3. Once you have added the team you will notice your in “PENDING” mode (this will not be the case for “a fan” selection). A Bench staff member needs to accept you into that team for you to gain access and visibility.

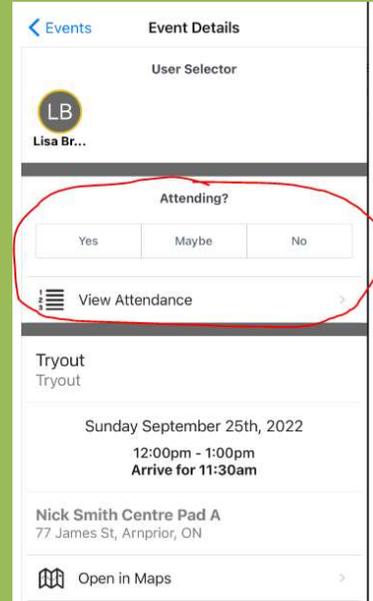

- Upon Entering you will see many items to play around with in there, here are just a few helpful slides. Your Bench staff will guide you in what they will use and will not use accordingly.

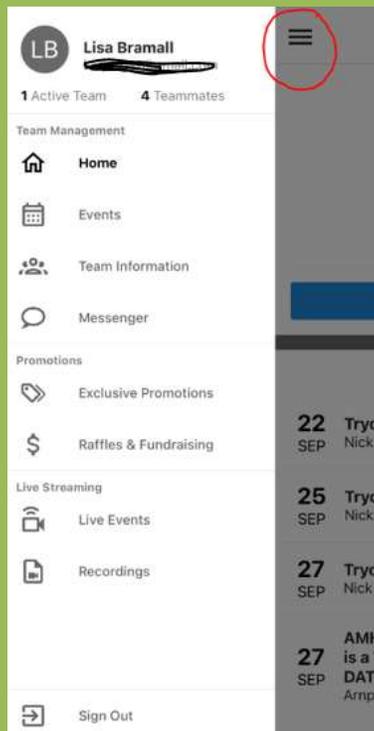

A. This is what you will initially see, your “Team Selection”.

B. When you click on any of the Upcoming Events there is an area where you can enter your attendance. Coach/Manager will let you know if they use that feature or not.

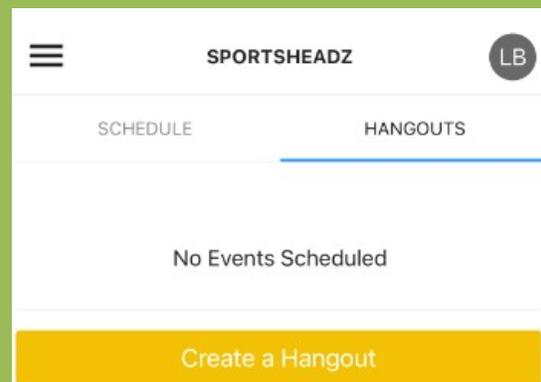

C. To see a Full Menu, click on the “three little lines”, the Hamburger.

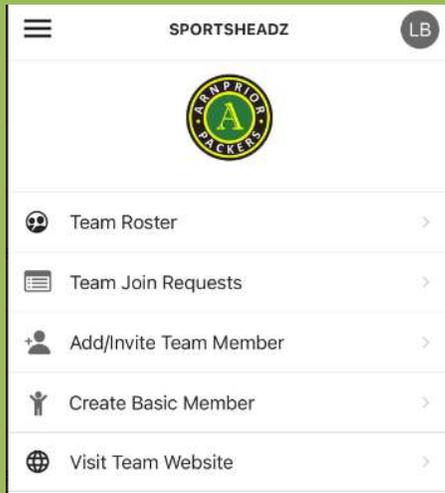

D. Events Area: There is a hangouts area (special events) for your team. This could include something like a meeting in the parking lot after the game/practice or a team BBQ at a specific time and location. Coach/Managers will use where they see fit.

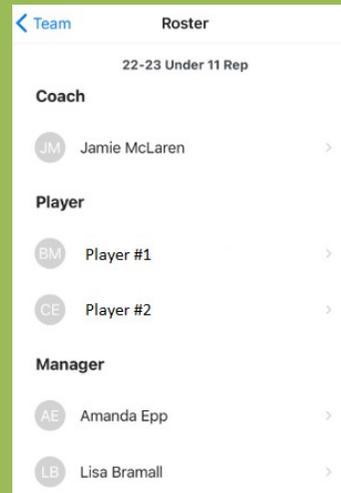

Swipe to left to move from SCHEDULE to HANGOUT.

E. Within the full menu if you select “Team Information” some of these options might not be visible to certain roles.

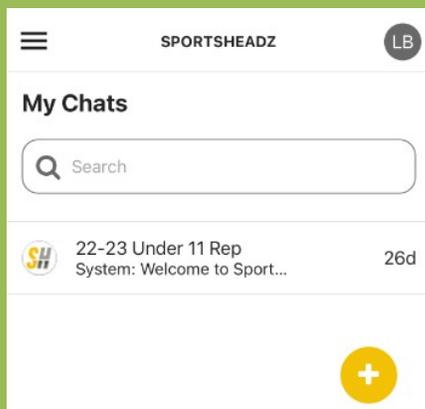

F. Team Roster: is an area that Managers can add all the player names and their Jersey Numbers for easy reference.

TEAM Roster is only seen by Parents and those approved to join by your team coach and manager. Player names are not seen by strangers

G. There is also an option for Team Chat/Messenger.

Click on the Messenger link from the main menu. Here you will find any chats that you have already started. You can start a new chat by clicking on the yellow plus sign. Simply select the people you are wishing to message and click the yellow arrow when ready to start typing your message. You cannot delete chats. They will always stay here.
